

Through this website, important information about the Iraqi Journal of Physics might be found, such as guidelines for authors, publication format, contact information and fees. These tasks and info can be accessed either by navigating through this site, or by going directly to paper submission page from which the general steps are outlined.

---